HIGHLIGHTS

- 🍓 Fall strawberry harvesting continues for the next week at a moderate to good rate depending on the area, the yield varying according to temperatures at night.
- 🍓 Plants are flowering and fruit is being formed in many fields, announcing the last wave of strawberries if temperatures stay warm in the next weeks.
- 🍓 Fall and Tunnel raspberries are also available in limited quantities for the coming week.
- 🍓 In general, great quality for both strawberries and raspberries is still being reported.
